

Malé Declaration on Control and Prevention of Air Pollution and its Likely Transboundary Effects for South Asia

Regional Stakeholders Meeting 2005

14 October 2005
New Delhi, India

Agenda

14 October 2005 – Friday

9:30 Hrs Introduction and meeting aims (R. Rajamani, Facilitator)

9:45 Hrs Malé Declaration and Its implementation; by UNEP

10:15 Hrs RAPIDC and its implementation; by SEI

Emission inventory by SEI

Scenarios and policy options by IIIIEE

11:00 Hrs Coffee/Tea Break

11.15 – 12.40 Hrs.

Overview of national level implementation of the Declaration; by NIAs (10 min each)

Environmental legislations in India by J.S. Kamyotra, Addnl. Director, CPCB

Impact of air pollution

-Impact of air pollution on crop by Prof. S. Razi Abbas Shamsi

-Health impact of air pollution (asbestos) by Dr. Joshi

12.40- 13:45 Hrs. Lunch

13:45- 15:45

Monitoring transboundary air pollution

- Air Quality Modeling by Prof. Manju Mohan IIT, Delhi

-Application of Models for Air quality management for Indian cities

by Dr. A.L. Agarwal

-Monitoring transboundary air pollution using passive sampling by Karin

-Transboundary pollution in Sri Lanka: A case study from the north-central province

by Prof. Oliver A.Ileperuma

15:45 Hrs Coffee/Tea Break

16:15 Hrs Closing of the forum

Meeting aims and participants

The main aims of the stakeholders forum are:

- Increase the awareness on the transboundary air pollution;
- Share and receive the stakeholders views and ideas on the implementation of Malé Declaration; and
- Improve the information exchange between information generators and users.